OUR APPROACH

KIPP Heritage students take reading, math, science, and social studies daily. In addition to working with technology throughout the day in their classes, students also spend part of their day in an intervention block where they use technology to learn at their own levels and at their own pace. During this time, students also work in small groups with their teachers to target specific skills in reading and math. Students have approximately 60 minutes of homework each night. In addition to assigned homework from teachers, our students are expected to read at least 30 minutes per night in their independent reading books. Our teachers focus on literacy and collaboration while providing rigorous college-prep instruction. Our electives include art, music, physical education, and leadership, and our after school activities include band, competitive sports, and weekly clubs led by teachers.

KIPP HERITAGE ACADEMY

KIPP Heritage Academy is a free, college-preparatory, public charter school open to all students in San Jose. The school opened in the Franklin-McKinley School District in July of 2014 with 100 fifth-grade students. Through a rigorous literacy program, students write and tell their stories, as well as listen to the stories of others with compassion. As students master skills and content necessary to be successful in college and life, they also learn to advocate for themselves and their communities with humility and clarity. KIPP Heritage Academy is one of 12 KIPP schools in the Bay Area and 209 KIPP schools nationally educating 87,000 students on their path to and through college.
